

How to Help Romance Endure: KEEP THE MYSTERY ALIVE

BY SMARTLOVING
www.smartloving.org

Hear the mystery.

Share with each other a cherished hope you have for your future. Listen carefully to each other.

See the mystery.

Make time to contemplate each other. Look into each other's eyes with love and acceptance. Try holding your gaze for five minutes, using only your eyes to communicate your openness.

The Lover's Gaze Challenge

Speak the mystery.

Express your wonder and gratitude for all that the other is in your life. Express it in prayer, express it to each other, express it to your family and friends. Become your lover's cheer squad and advocate.
